

Group Covenant #1

Below are eight suggested values to include in a group covenant. Customize it to fit your group needs. (From www.ReviveOurHearts.com)

1. Confidentiality

What I hear and see in the group will stay in the group.

2. Authenticity

I will be as open with my life as I can be at this time.

3. Love

I will affirm the members of the group no matter what some may have said or done in the past. I will love you now and pray for God to continue to transform everyone into the likeness of His Son.

4. Accountability

I will ask the group to hold me accountable for specific areas of my life. With my permission members can ask me about the goals I set regarding God, my family, my personal life, and the world. I expect you to lovingly not “let me off the hook.” On the basis of Proverbs 27:17, I ask the group to please share with me areas in my life that do not reflect Jesus, because I want to grow in personal holiness.

5. Prayer

I promise to pray for others in my group on a regular basis, lifting them up to the Lord.

6. Encouragement

I understand every person in this group is at a different point in their journey with the Lord. I will accept each group member as you are, but will encourage each member to progress in becoming more like Jesus.

7. Commitment

I will have my work completed when I come to group. I will choose to attend each weekly meeting even if I fall short. I will make every effort to be present and on time. It will have high priority in my schedule.

8. Participation

I will do my part to keep the discussion centered on biblical truth and the text we’re studying. I will contribute to the discussion without dominating. I will be sensitive in allowing members to share equally as we grow in Christ together. Scripture will be our final authority.
